

Spirit & Place

2009

November 6-15

inspiring places

A Civic Festival of the Arts,
Humanities, and Religion

Discovering Indy's Green Velvet Glove, Sunday, November 8

A Public Conversation 6:00 PM-8:30 PM

Topic: I Love My Parks, They Inspire Me Too. . . .

Host: Don Colvin, Deputy Director, IndyParks

Meet at the Athenaeum, Downstairs Ballroom, 401 East Michigan Street

Bring memories, inspirations, and friends to the place where George Kessler promoted the importance of a park and boulevard system to the city leaders. Tell us how the parks have affected and inspired your lives!

Food and Refreshments Available for Purchase

Check www.spiritandplace.org for up-to-date meeting places and info

Or contact Tina Jones, IndyParks Planner at cpjones@indy.gov, 327-7041 (office) or (cell) 544-9458

*A Project of The Polis Center,
IU School of Liberal Arts, IUPUI*