Spirit & Place Festival

Annual Indianapolis festival strives for 48-hrs of continuous pitch-in meals

INDIANAPOLIS – What better way to mix food and community than with a 48-hour pitch-in?

To coincide with this year's Food for Thought theme, the 2010 Spirit & Place Festival will conclude with a new event designed to bring people together through the sharing of food. The Perpetual Pitch-In Project will last for 48 consecutive hours, November 12-14, at various congregations, homes and community centers across Central Indiana.

Participants are encouraged to think of unique times to hold their event during the two-day affair. Spirit & Place also challenges pitch-in contributors to incorporate creative themes that will stimulate interaction and outreach.

The Perpetual Pitch-In Project welcomes everyone to participate, such as fire and police departments, hospitals, nonprofit groups, business and professional groups and even neighbors, friends and family.

Register online at www.spiritandplace.org to choose the date and time of your pitch-in event.

The 15th annual Spirit & Place Festival will be held Friday, Nov. 5 through Sunday, Nov. 14. For more information on festival events and ticket information, visit www.spiritandplace.org.
